BREAKOUT ROOM · OPERATIONAL EFFICIENCY

Keeping the lecturer in the loop

with [name], Eduface

Eduface | Jisc

THIS ROOM

Three parts

Vote on five statements

How we keep the lecturer in the loop

Discussion

Eduface | Jisc

STATEMENT 1 OF 5

Formative feedback that no lecturer has read first is acceptable.

Agree

Disagree

Eduface | Jisc

STATEMENT 2 OF 5

Time saved on marking would go back into teaching at my institution.

Agree

Disagree

Eduface | Jisc

STATEMENT 3 OF 5

Most lecturers would accept AI feedback without changing it.

Agree

Disagree

STATEMENT 4 OF 5

Students care whether a person wrote their feedback.

Agree

Disagree

Eduface | Jisc

STATEMENT 5 OF 5

Summative feedback should always be signed off by a lecturer.

Agree

Disagree

Eduface | Jisc

Demo

Human in the loop

How the lecturer stays in charge of summative feedback

Eduface | Jisc

SUMMATIVE FEEDBACK

The AI drafts. The lecturer decides.

AI drafts a comment per rubric criterion

Lecturer reads, edits and adds

Only approved feedback reaches the student

Lecturer + AI Every comment is reviewed before the student sees it.

Eduface | Jisc

WHAT WE SEE

97%

of summative assignments get extra feedback from the lecturer, on top of the AI draft

Lecturers don’t outsource their judgement.

They work with the AI to give the student better feedback.

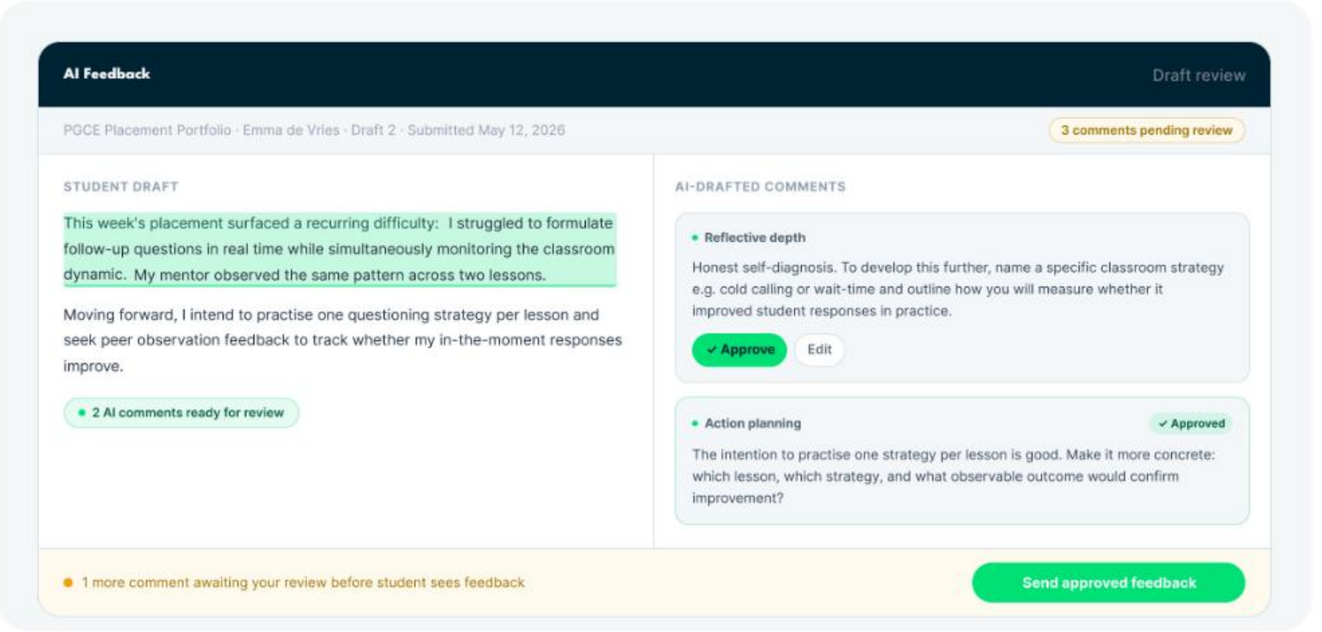

Eduface platform data, summative assessments.

Eduface | Jisc

WHAT THE LECTURER SEES

Every comment waits for approval

Approve, edit or add.
Nothing goes to the student without the lecturer.

Product screen from eduface.me

Eduface | Jisc

AN IDEA WE'D LIKE YOUR VIEW ON

A nudge against rubber-stamping

10 approved without a single change. Take a closer look at this one?

When a lecturer approves a long run of drafts untouched, the platform asks them to look again.

Concept for discussion, not a current feature.

Eduface | Jisc

Live demo

One assignment, from AI draft to approved feedback.

Eduface | Jisc

DISCUSSION

What should a lecturer always add that AI can’t?

The 97% says lecturers already know.

Eduface | Jisc

DISCUSSION · 1 OF 4

What does “human in the loop” mean at your institution in practice?

DISCUSSION · 2 OF 4

When is approving without edits fine, and when is it a warning sign?

DISCUSSION · 3 OF 4

Who is accountable for summative feedback: the lecturer, the module lead or the institution?

DISCUSSION · 4 OF 4

Where would you spend the time you get back?

Back to the main room

Bring one thing you heard here.