Rubric legal advice

Criterion	Unsatisfactory	Satisfactory	Good	Excellent
Facts and legal question	Facts incomplete or no legal question.	Legally relevant facts and a clear legal question.	Also dates and actions relevant to time limits and evidence.	Sharp selection of facts and a precisely defined legal question.
Legal framework	Incorrect or outdated rules.	Correct articles on consumer sale, conformity and remedies.	Also the presumption, duty to give notice and case law correctly set out.	Complete and up to date, with the European background where relevant.
Analysis and application	Rules not applied or applied incorrectly, for example termination without first considering repair or replacement.	Conformity, burden of proof and notice applied to the facts.	Also the order of remedies applied correctly.	Also possible defences of the seller rebutted.
Conclusion and advice	Advice does not follow from the analysis or is legally incorrect.	Conclusion answers the legal question, advice is workable.	Concrete steps with time limits and evidence.	Steps including alternatives if the seller refuses.
Legal writing	Unclear or careless, references incorrect.	Clear, references largely correct.	Precise wording and consistent referencing.	Error-free, concise and persuasive.
